Well, what do you think of that? The steam plow has invaded the Estancia valley. The plow is to be used to turn sod.

House Bill No. 61, introduced by Hon. N. V. Gallegos, representative from this district, is published in full in this issue of the News and it will be of interest to every citizen of Quay county.

The constitutional convention of Oklahoma is making haste very slowly. The way is full of stumbling blocks and the solons are hitting them at every corner.

From the appearance of the Cimarron News and Press there must be something doing in that particular section of New Mexico. The new railway shops will be completed there in a few days.

There is a penalty for burning off the commons in Quay county, and it will be well for those who have let fire get out to be a little careful in the future, as the matter is being watched by the authorities.

It looks good to see the old flag floating above the public school building. Tucumcari is a new town in a new country, but we are up and doing and in the front rank in the general progress of the Sunshine Territory.

The assistant superintendent of registry of the U. S. postal department was a visitor this week, and told postmaster Carter that he knew of no office anywhere that needed assistance as badly as this one.

The fence cutters have been doing some damage lately for Tucumcari people. A. D. Goldenberg and R. P. Donohoo are the greatest sufferers; they have lost considerable fence. This business should be stopped in short order and the wire cutters punished to the full extent of the law.

The street graders are at work this week on Second from the depot to Main. The improvement is pronounced.

Nearly every state legislature in the Union is considering legislation to force the railroads to a two cent a mile passenger rate. The quicker this comes the better, it must come sooner or later.

Sheriff Sanchez of Torrance county was this week deposed by Judge Edw. A. Mann, judge of the sixth judicial district, for malfeasance in office. Gov. Hagerman has not yet appointed his successor.

The constitution and by-laws of the commercial club are being published in this issue of the News for general information of the people who are interested, and we hope it will impart valuable information about the club.

A number of petitions are being circulated here and in Union and San Miguel counties asking for a portion of the southern part of Union and a few townships of San Miguel to be annexed to Quay county. Everybody should sign these petitions, as this is a matter of great importance.

Governor Hagerman used his veto power the first time since the convening of the territorial legislature this week when he returned the bill giving the county commissioners power to fill all vacancies occurring from any cause in their counties, except in case of the office of commissioner which was left to the Executive.

Card of Thanks

I take this method of extending to kind friends my heartfelt thanks for their many acts of kindness and sympathy manifested in my late sad bereavement, the death of my little son.

Mrs. W. L. Besse
Logan, N. Mex.

This sketch was written by J. W. Winn Sr. of Winnview, Okla. in remembrance of his little grandson, Winfred Thomas Besse, who died at Logan N. M., Feb. 2 '07, age 6 yrs. 7 months and 8 days.

Laid to rest in the cemetery at Winnview Okla.

Alas! Alas! he is now gone
And my poor heart is left to mourn
My great loss is his great gain
But my heart doth smart with pain.

O! Dear Lord is it not so,
That he is with me where e'er I go?
Where I roam and where I walk
It seems I hear his little talk.

Farewell, Farewell, my little dear,
You were to me so very near;
Alas, Alas, you are now gone,
Grandpa is coming before long.

Gus Mathis is suffering with rheumatism.

Israel is this week receiving a very large shipment of dry goods.

A. J. Jones has Texas red oats bought especially for seedling.

R. L. Patterson, the probate judge, is crippled up with rheumatism.

Levy Beals, of Afton, I. T., came in last Wednesday and has located by leasing the Elliott & Miller wagon yard. He was in the livery business in Indian Territory.

Ice and Cold Storage.

M. B. Fowler is going to begin work immediately to enlarge his ice house and cold storage plant to 400 tons capacity. Fowler is intending to increase his present plant to a size sufficient to accommodate not only the local market but the surrounding towns. Mr. Fowler is one of our shrewdest business men, and has made a neat little sum of money since he came to Tucumcari.
